JÁKOBŮV ŽEBŘÍK

A whimsical illustration of Jacob's Ladder. The ladder is made of wooden planks and extends from a blue, cloud-like base to a golden, glowing archway at the top. Several angels with white wings and halos are positioned around the ladder. One angel is at the top, another is on the ladder, and others are floating in the blue, starry sky. In the foreground, a young child with brown hair is sleeping peacefully on a blue cushion, wearing a blue nightgown and a yellow blanket. The background is a deep blue sky filled with golden stars and soft, blue clouds.
